

PRESS RELEASE
ON THE MEETING OF THE SECRETARY GENERAL
WITH A GROUP OF BUSINESSMEN AND RESEARCHERS FROM ARMENIA AND TURKEY

A group of businessmen and researchers from Armenia and Turkey were received upon their request on 4 November 2019 by the Secretary General, the First Deputy Secretary General and the responsible Executive Manager of BSEC PERMIS. The group informed their hosts on a project funded by the UK Government under the title “Armenia – Turkey Economic relations: New stage?” which they are currently implementing; they briefly touched upon the activities of the Armenian and Turkish teams aimed at revealing what could be done practically to promote economic relations between the two countries and enhance the mutual trust among the business and academic communities of Armenia and Turkey.
