ON THE PARTICIPTAION OF THE BSEC PERMIS SECRETARY GENERAL IN THE IX GLOBAL BAKU FORUM

The BSEC PERMIS Secretary General Ambassador Lazar Comanescu participated in the IX Global Baku Forum organized by the Nizami Ganjavi International Center on 16-18 June 2022 in Baku.

The generic topic of the Forum was “Challenges to the Global World Order” under which a comprehensive number of issues of both global and regional dimension were discussed

Approximately 400 people, including current and former heads of state or government, ministers, parliamentarians, heads of international organizations, academics, high level experts, and media participated in the Forum which proved to be an excellent platform and framework for exchanging views and bringing forward ideas and proposals for action aimed at tackling the current and future global and international challenges.

The need of a rapid solution to the crisis and war in Ukraine, in full compliance with the international law was highlighted in this context.

Ambassador Comanescu participated as panelist in the panel dedicated to South Caucasus. While welcoming the recent developments there in, which could be a source of inspiration for others as well, he highlighted the efforts of the Organization aimed at fostering economic cooperation and through this confidence building in the region.

As to other issues of global dimension, the need to adapt and reform the UN System to the current and future challenges so as to enable their appropriate approach was underlined. “
